

SAVE THE DATE

MSUBILLINGS

Summer Institute 2010

June 7th – 10th

Transforming Perceptions

A professional development conference for educators, social workers, parents, students, and the general public

Featured Keynote Presenters:

Dr. Martin Brokenleg
Educator & Co-author of Reclaiming Youth at Risk

Dr. Richard Littlebear
Educator & President
Chief Dull Knife College

Denise Juneau
Montana Superintendent of Public Instruction

Ray Buckley
Author & Motivational Speaker

Dr. Christy Price
Educator, "The Millennial Student"

Pre-registration strongly suggested (space limited)

On-line: www.msubillings.edu/SummerInstitute or call 896-5890

Conference Fees: continental breakfast & lunch included

Early Bird: $125 (May 15th deadline; Qualifies Participant for Entry into Drawing for Multiple Prizes!)

After May 15th: $150

OPI Renewal Units, available at no cost CEU available

OR

1 college credit,
additional $125*

Enroll for Credit:
2 college credits
additional $ 250*

Scholarships Available: Contact Robin Reid 406-657-2054 or at robin.reid1@msubillings.edu for more information

Housing: Boothill Inn room block $88 + tax/night call: 245-2000

Dorm housing option: $26.50/night call: 657-2333

*Follow up assignment required

Sample Topics

Implementation Models for IEA

Early Literacy

Inquiry Based Instruction

Autism

Technology Assisted Learning

Ethnomathematics

Corrective Reading

Para-Academy

Teaching the Millennium Student

Implementing a Trust Learning Model

Corrective Math

Instructional Implications of Poverty

STEP UP to Writing

Google Placenames

Interpreting DIBLES

NOTE: some workshops require an attendance commitment of 2 or more days

...and more...

Sponsored by:

American Indian Big Sky Projects

Southern Montana Association for Resources and Training

Region III CSPD

NEW SLATE Technology Grant

